

Field Trip Contract

Students have a right to participate in school supported and sponsored field trips. Students have a corresponding responsibility to cooperate with the school, teachers, and supervisors as well as follow specific rules for field trips. Students who abuse the rights will be excluded when appropriate* and may lose privileges to participate in future field trip activities.

CONTRACT OF EXPECTATIONS

Respect for Supervisors, Peers, and Property:

1. I will follow directions of supervisors at times;
2. I will be respectful of other members of the public in my language and actions;
3. I will follow the rules and procedures expected in any place in which the field trip is located;
4. I will demonstrate respect for my peers through proper language and actions - both on busses and at the destination.
5. I will show respect for the busses and personal property of others on the trip;
6. I will show respect for the property located at the destination;
7. I will keep a copy of the field trips agenda with me at all times.

*Consequences for Misbehavior:

1. For minor misbehavior, the student will be warned only once.
2. For continued misbehavior and /or a more serious incident, the student will be removed from the activity. When possible, the parent will be called to get the student and/or the student will be returned to school. When that is not possible, the student will be kept in isolation from the activity for the remainder of the trip.
3. Upon returning to school, and depending on the nature of the misbehavior, community service and suspension will be considered the usual consequences for misbehavior on a field trip.
